Institutional Strength

1. College is located in rural and natural atmosphere.
2. Students from weaker sections are admitted as per the reservation policy.
3. Scholarship for SC, ST and OBC and GENERAL students through social welfare Department of state and Central Government.

Institutional Weakness:

1. Being in rural area, limited opportunities for personal development.
2. limits the exposure of the students to job market.

Institutional Opportunities:

1. To promote the interdisciplinary approach to research along with more collaborations.
2. Improve research environment among all the faculties.
3. To enhance consultancy and work for job opportunities to students by adopting skill development programs.

Institutional Challenges:

1. Adaption to frequent changes in national and institutional policy.
2. To improve the quality of education and to increase the passing percentage and reduce the dropout rate.
3. To maintain record of Placements, Higher Education and Competitive Examination from passed out students.
