Brief Report	On the second day of the seven-day camp of Units I and II of the National Service Scheme, volunteers and servants took out a rally on the topic of water conservation in Saharia Basti and Zonal Area of village Mehra and made the villagers aware through street meetings. Earlier, principal Dr. Sunil Kumar Jain, Dr. Rohit Jain, Head of The Department B.Ed. Assistant Professor Ashwani Kumar Jain, Shri Ramsevak Chandrakar and Vinod Baudh laid a wreath in front of the portrait of Mother Saraswati. After this, the kulgeet of National Service Scheme was sung collectively in the auditorium and Ashwini Kumar Jain, Program Officer of Unit II, while guiding the students on today's topic water conservation, said that "Water is precious ratan, save it" should not let water flow in vain in any way, this is possible only when we understand its importance. Dr. Rohit Kumar Jain said that there is a shortage of underground water level in the rocky areas of Bundelkhand, in such a situation we need to make the rain water sour during the rainy season. Through our small efforts, we can make cheques to sour the water in the field. Shri Vinod Kumar expressed concern over the decreasing amount of rainfall in rural areas and emphasized on tree plantation to increase it as they are the ones who are able to attract clouds and bring rain. Dr. Sunil Kumar Jain while discussing rain water harvesting said that at present rain water harvesting should be done on priority. It not only increases the ground water but also supplies water in adverse conditions. Among the speakers, National Service Scheme Unit Shri Ram Chandrakar, Shri Mati Nidhi Jain also expressed their views. The programme was conducted by Ashwini Kumar Jain, Programme Officer, National Service Scheme Unit II.

Brief	Today, on 23rd March 2023, on the third day of the seven-day special camp of National Service Scheme at Bhagwan Aadinath College of Education Mahara Lalitpur, volunteers and volunteers of National Service Scheme gave the message of cleanliness by conducting a campaign in urban Awasthi Mahada under the cleanliness program. The programme was inaugurated by the College Manager Mr. Pradeep Kumar Jain and Principal Dr. Sunil Kumar Jain by introducing cleanliness in the college premises. Speaking on the occasion, the Manager said that hon'ble Prime Minister of our country Shri Narendra Modi has given age to cleanliness in his various schemes, as a result of which the cleanliness campaign is organized from time to time throughout the country today and by adding this program to the National Service Scheme, he has expressed his sensitivity towards cleanliness among the youth. Principal Dr. Sunil Kumar Jain while referring to the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan said that we are often aware of cleanliness in our house, but the youth in our neighborhood society and country are not aware of cleanliness. Under the cleanliness campaign, volunteers and labor workers of National Service Scheme conducted a cleanliness campaign in the tribal settlement of village Mohalla and everyone participated in the cleanliness program there through their participation. The programme was conducted by Shri Ashwini Kumar Jain.
